VISION

Every Step I take
Every move I Make
My perspective changes,
I see the unseen and
Notice the unnoticed
I see the light, I see the shadow
I see every being differently,

I see nature and surroundings with a new vision

All I did was just,
Move a step ahead.
I see myself unite with the change,
embracing the change.
I realized Myself moving forward,
On the path of Light.

ME TO MY SELF

Admire the crowd
Among so many known but unknown
There might be one whom I can call upon
Someone who trusts me
Someone who can call upon me
A call to share happiness, laughter, sorrows and cries Someone just to pass that smile to Someone to be with

Hey Someone where r u ?
Are u outside my window or door
Are u there? Do u exist if yes
Where are u ?
behind me
Or are just hiding from me ?
Are u in same room as I am ?

Someone for whom you r looking
Is there Admist the crowd
Is here among the unknowns
But very known to you .
In Silence and Stillness
You shall find that SOMEONE TO BE INSIDE AND WITH YOU ALWAYS .
