

My dream of togetherness

The sun has fallen
Behind the mountain s face

Looking at the horizon
I see your shape..

The sky had so many colors
Orange
Pink
And some green
In the middle

As a painter I mixed up
The cold and the warm colors
Making yours eyes with a black pencil and your lips with a light red

-I ask the sky
-Did my sun, will come back again?

The sky responds :
If you believe in Light
Sun will always shine for you!!!!
