

A precious man

The nights and the days come and go without a smile
The days are so big without a smile
The nights are a waiting for a call or a message
It is so expensive this time away from your eyes.
You are my precious pearl..
A diamond hide in the mud..
Waiting the time to hug you and kiss you.
You are my treasure hidden from the sun
Waiting the day I meet you again..
Waiting your look..
Waiting your lips..
You are my precious pearl hidden in the oyster deep in the sea.
You are my precious man.

You

My poem

You,

That the face I did not see for years

You

U are the most amazing being

But cannot touch

You,

The beauty is hiding in small pieces in your body and mind

You,,

I can explain why

But i know my what

You

That one day u crossed my path

Forces of love or passion touched me

Without reason

I am looking the east

U are looking the west

Miracles happens every day

You

A passion I can live in a privately moment

Love I give

Love will never be understood

You...

In another space of galaxy

You

My ideal

My secret

Garden

You

The moments I never had

You

The distance between 2 countries

A bridge i will try to build to reach you

Good night poem

What a caterpillar maybe call the end
A butterfly call it the beginning of a beautiful journey...

The stars are so far but we can see the lights
And feel their heat

As i am thinking of you
Days and nights are together

No distance
Only sun
Only Moon

And for once they are together
In this beautiful sky

Thinking of you
The days

Think about you
My heart
My body
My soul
Wake up
And
Danse in a circle

Imagine u are here
Imagine u are close to me

Imagine our life starts
This is my wish
My prayer

As you are my hope
My inspiration
In those long years of loneliness...

Love poem

Your smile...

I dream a future with you

I dream a blue sky

Sunset to a an island

I dream a white house

And have a view to the sea

I dream a future close to you..

And i get a bad dream

Sleeping alone

Feeling weak

But in my heart

i am not alone because i feel your heart beat

I feel your breath

Forgiveness

A word that is coming out from the brave heart

I am not asking to forgive as a Human

I am asking to forgive as a GOD

As HE has the kindness and the generosity to see the human 's mistake.

I am asking to forgive not a as a man

But as An Angel that every day and night

Is traveling from Earth to sky....

I don't need any paper

Green or blue

I saw your heart

You had it there in front of me...

I understand that silence

That silver silence

I am damned in sky and earth...

I am just a soul traveling alone..

Seeking for forgiveness

Hug

I miss the hug
A hug that they give you and you forget the weaknesses of your existence.
I miss a kiss
The kiss that someone give you and your stomach make those noise like is full of butterflies

I miss the smile
That childish smile that you have U are smiling and all nature become Pink

I miss the walk to the beach
The waves
The perfume of the salt
I miss the sunshine and the sunset
All the simple things that I had

I miss the generosity of people
I miss the kindness of grandparents
I miss the relaxing moments of drinking a coffee

Now, they all want your friend, your position, your talent, your contact, your potential, your life almost but no one...
Nobody want to get in your shoes
They are too tide!!!!

Nothing belongs to us

We are free
We are the captain of our soul..
Nobody can say this or that and you must execute.

Nobody belongs to us
We are choosing according our feelings
Our thoughts
Our beliefs
Our stomach
The most a person make you laugh
The more u want to be with
We are nobody
We are nothing
More than the butterfly
Than the bee...

We are no creators but small ants
Or cigals
Or wolves
Show respect
Kindness
But no trust
Trust your instinct
Trust your heart
We are nothing more than a fly
We are nothing more than a bird
Laugh to your heart
Love your inner soul
And put your frequency high
Touch the stars
Make a wish
Stay a happy child..

Send my poem

Golden bridges

I find you
Because you were hurted

I cherish you
As i felt your pain

I love you and
I cover your wounds
With silver

So u will shine
U will shine
U will never broke again

I will create a bridge for all the hurted person
I will build golden pillars
Nobody will hurt again children or women
As the diamonds
They will shine

We will Rise
And we will re born in a future peaceful world..
